WILLIAM FRANCKLYN PARIS

DECEMBER 3d. 1923.

My dear Mr. Newell:

A short time after the death of Mr. J. Sanford Saltus, I received a letter from Mr. W. O. Hart, a distinguished attorney of 134 Carondelet Street, New Orleans, stating that he had in preparation an important biographical sketch which in due time the Louisiana Historical Society would be pleased to mail gratis to the friends of Mr. Saltus.

I am now in receipt of a letter from Mr. Hart announcing that the Society is prepared to send out the copy of his Memorial. He has asked me to send him a list of the friends to whom this brochure might be sent and in turn I am writing to you conveying his offer as I feel that you will wish to avail yourself and your society of his kindness.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Newell, President,
